ISIS Fund Services adds additional talent to its team

ISIS Fund Services ("IFSL") the Bermuda based hedge fund administration specialist, has appointed Stephanie Fraser as Head of Operations and Simon Payne as Company Secretary.

Stephanie, who has over thirteen years experience in the areas of accounting, audit, taxation and financial services, joins IFSL from Citigroup Fund Services, a hedge fund administration division, where she was an Assistant Vice President and was responsible for numerous fund launches, conversions and accounting services of many complex fund structures. Prior to joining Citigroup, she worked with Bisys Hedge Fund Services focusing on both onshore and offshore hedge funds. She began her career at Baker Tilly, a leading independent firm of chartered accountants and business advisers.

Stephanie is a Chartered Accountant and is a Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland.

Also joining the team is Simon Payne. Simon started his career as a police officer with the Bermuda Police Service before turning to law. Before joining IFSL, Simon was an Associate Attorney at Wakefield Quin, a full service law firm based in Bermuda. His corporate practice areas included company and partnership formations, liquidations and advising on broad range of corporate matters.

Simon was called to the Bar of Bermuda as well as the Bar of England and Wales (non-practicing) and is a member of the Honourable Society of Gray's Inn.

Ede Conyers, Chief Executive Officer, added:

"The hedge fund market continues to develop with the emergence of new investment mandates and products. To maintain our premium service standards and support the next phase of growth for the business we need to supplement our existing team with additional experienced individuals.

ISIS Fund Services has a reputation for excellence and strong corporate governance, and recruiting Stephanie and Simon further demonstrates our commitment to keep investing in the team for the benefit of our clients."
